

Join Us for the From Equity to LIBERATION

A School Transformation, Restorative Leadership Summit

August 5-7, 2026

Experience an inspiring, action-packed event designed for educational leaders, innovators, and changemakers who are passionate about transforming schools.

Join us as we reimagine education through the lens of equity and liberation, crafting schools and learning environments where every student thrives. This summit offers dynamic sessions and empowering presentations that highlight how to foster collaborative leadership, integrate restorative practices, and develop strategies to lead transformative change.

Together, we'll explore tools and approaches to bring LIFE (Lead, Inspire, Fuel, Empower) to school transformation, ensuring inclusive, equitable learning and growth spaces.

Mary Kovari | Educational Consultant

"I walk away from this conference with such hope and belief that restorative practices can improve schools and help students achieve equity."

Daidre Rochester | New York City Schools

"As a leadership conference it truly pushed me to be a better leader when it comes to communicating with teachers that we are there for them, we support them, and we are standing with them more effectively."

John Shanley | Asst. Principal

"After attending this conference, I was inspired to look at myself and be introspective in a way that I believe will have a lasting impact on how I enter the building next year."

Erin Wills | Leadership Consultant

"A picture is worth a thousand words. Identifying that any culture shift in a school is going to start with a mind shift. And that's what this conference does, it moves your thinking through thoughtful learning experiences and growth planning."
